

Freedom Principle MO Proudly Endorses David Lightner and Dr. Maryam Mohammadkhani for Missouri RNC Committee

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(May 2, 2024 – St. Louis, MO)

The Freedom Principle MO is proud to endorse State Committeeman David Lightner (Jackson County) and Springfield School Board Member Dr. Maryam Mohammadkhani for Republican National Committee (RNC) Committeeman and Committeewoman at the upcoming Missouri Republican Convention in Springfield. “We are encouraging the Missouri convention delegates to support David and Maryam to represent Missouri as national GOP Committeeman and Committeewoman,” said Byron Keelin, President of the Freedom Principle MO. “David and Maryam represent the fresh voices our state and national Republican Party needs.”

David and Maryam are running against current GOP Committeeman Gordon Kinne and Committeewoman Carrie Almond. The election will occur on Saturday, May 4th at the Missouri Republican Convention in Springfield, MO. “We are supporting David and Maryam because they represent the core Republican values the party has lost sight of and are the best choice to represent Missouri in rebuilding the Republican Party,” said Keelin.

The Freedom Principle has been working with Maryam during her time as a member of the Springfield School Board. She has been a strong voice for removing DEI and transgender curriculum from our public schools. She has been a strong advocate of returning to academic excellence. The Freedom Principle MO recently endorsed Maryam’s re-election for the school board. The Freedom Principle has also worked with David on important legislation like election integrity. “Both candidates will listen to the grassroots, support genuine America First conservative candidates, and work to protect the integrity of our elections,” said Keelin.

Turning Point USA Action Network also endorses David and Maryam. They said in their endorsement, “Unlike our current committee members, David and Maryam will champion common sense grassroots principles and uphold the ethics of the Republican platform against external influences.”

We agree with Turning Point USA Action Network. Missouri State GOP needs new leadership from the top down. “The current committeeman and committeewoman and our state GOP chair have failed Missourians,” said Keelin. “They continually ignore the grassroots volunteers who work hard to protect our American values. We must elect David and Maryam as they are committed to empowering county parties and returning the party to its people.”
